

European Commission, DG MARE
Agreement number – SI2 - 721911

MANTIS: Marine protected Areas Network Towards Sustainable fisheries in the Central Mediterranean

1st MANTIS General Meeting

Rome, 15-16 February 2017 (Italy)

Laboratory of Experimental Ecology and Aquaculture – Dept. of Biology – University of Rome Tor Vergata

Draft Agenda

Wednesday 15th February

10:00-10:30 Welcome with coffee and adoption of the agenda

10:30-11:30 The state of the art of MANTIS project and overview of the work done in the WP0 (by Fabio Fiorentino, CNR)

11:30-12:30 Overview of the work done in the WP1 and scheduled activities (by Giulia Prato, WWF Italy)

12:30-13:30 Overview of the work done in the WP2, including the GRID presentation, and scheduled activities (by Giuseppe Scarcella, CNR, Silvia Angelini, CNR, and Cosimo Solidoro, OGS)

13:30-15:30 Lunch break

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission

MANTIS - Marine protected Areas Network Towards Sustainable fisheries in the Central Mediterranean is a project funded by the European Commission – DG Maritime Affairs and Fisheries (DG MARE) under the theme “Marine protected areas: network(s) for enhancement of sustainable fisheries in EU Mediterranean waters Mare/2014/41

15:30-16:30 Overview of the work done in the WP3 and scheduled activities. (by Tommaso Russo, Conisma)

16:30-17:00 Coffee break

17:00-17:30 WP4: scheduled activities. (by Francesco Colloca, CNR, and Rosaria Sabatella, Nisea)

17:30- 18:00 Overview of the work done in the WP5 and scheduled activities. (by Nedo Vrgoc, IOF)

Thursday 16th February

09:00-11:00 Issues linked to the integration of information collected in WP2 with modelling done in WP3 (Data collection, with particular emphasis on spatial pattern of fishing effort and catches; Structure of the fishing grounds; Characteristics of the meta-populations; Details of the connectivity models)

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:15 First outlines of the fishing effort scenarios for management simulation

12:15-13:00 General discussion on the activities scheduled for the second year.

13:00-14:30 Lunch break

14:30-16:00 General conclusions

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-17:30 Timing of future activities (by Fabio Fiorentino, CNR)

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission

MANTIS - Marine protected Areas Network Towards Sustainable fisheries in the Central Mediterranean is a project funded by the European Commission – DG Maritime Affairs and Fisheries (DG MARE) under the theme “Marine protected areas: network(s) for enhancement of sustainable fisheries in EU Mediterranean waters Mare/2014/41